GENESIS

Every single moment time will melt away my life // What choices do I have, how do I know is wrong or right?
How do I speak of what I see through my own eyes? // Without telling you that the truth you've known is all a lie.
Stop living the lie, existing just because you can // I can be the dreamer // I can, I am.

SCARAB

Crawling through the burning sand // Just a man whose lost in time // Distant memories of a life
That flow like waves within my mind // Look upon these calloused hands as they move without a thought
Lucid wisdom in every atom the golden mind of Thoth // We are the Gods, who have lost ourselves in forms
Like a scarab in the mind we fester in the soul // I have felt the burden of pain // For the last time
You want the fucking truth? // So you want the fucking truth? // The truth is we all suffer
We all suffer in life // We all suffer in time // Beat me down, beat me down // Again and again, again and again
Reign hell on me // In life we all suffer // But I will find my way // Through the darkness
This is the truth // In the back of my mind // Its been hiding away // For me to find // Dancing in the fire
We burn together // This pain will never end

When the wind breaks before our very path // We are swept away; I hear the wind howling my name
Leaving behind me everything I thought that I should be // Everything they told me was right
Leaving behind me everything I thought that I should be // Everything they said about life
We have made the sacrifices // We have been patient for long enough // It's our chance, our time
Our time to rise the fuck up // I will break the wind // This road, it leads so far away from home
I breathe the air, down a road to nowhere // Streams of oxygen, soothe our forms // We long to breathe in the air
Around us // I feel the kiss of the breeze against my face // We long to feel all the air // Around us
I'm packing up // I'm leaving here // Don't know when I'm coming back // Close your eyes and I disappear
Floating free throughout this life // Reshaping my thoughts time does wither the mind
Time does wither the mind, and in due time // The life I thought I wanted I never seem to find
It might be dark it might be cold // But if I ever feel like turning back
I just breathe and remember where I am, inside the dream // I will break the wind
When the wind breaks before our very path // We are swept away; I hear the wind howling my name // Break.

You think you see the world // I'll tell you nothing's how it seems // Organ of intuition suppressed and maimed
Believed to be "nothing but a dream" // Dymethylated spirits on fire in me // Burning from the inside
Divorce from nature // Exile from Eden // Confounding of tongues in a world full of lies
Why can't we open our eyes? // You think you see the world // I'll tell you nothings how it seems
I see the world with the clearest of eyes // A world of fear its loud and clear and no surprise
Can you feel the chaos over taking us? // Like a never ending plague // They watch us from above
Crying tears of blood // Crying tears of blood for the souls of the world // They watch us from above
Now I hear the voices of an ancient race // Peering through the veil of time and space
Emerging from the void // I am reborn // I see the world for what it really is Distorted visions of heaven, I have discovered theirs hope in my heart // For I am one // I am one
I am love // I am bliss // I am everything // I am everything you fear // Everything you've ever known
But don't be scared // For I am here // You think you see the world ill tell you nothings how it seems
All your dreams // Nothing's how it seems // All your dreams

Feeling all the love I swear that it's in the air // Leaving me; floating forever into infinity
I can see the colours dance when I close my eyes // Witnessing mysterious design // I can feel my body rush
From the love inside of me // Can't you see the joy of life is right before your eyes? // Infinite bliss, infinite love
Take a chance, close your eyes and just dream // It sets me free
We walk around blinded like children in the dark // So cold and so empty // How did this even start?
It's time to remember // What it's like to feel alive // Set me free
Why can't you see the joy of life is right before your eyes? // Infinite bliss, infinite love
Take a chance, close your eyes and just dream // It sets me free // Feeling all the love I swear that it's in the air
Leaving me, floating forever, into infinity // Quantum fluctuations project into the air
Leaving me floating forever into infinity // Infinite potential.

Pay close attention // Or else you'll miss what's happening // We worship the Sun // Yet we burn in its rays
So we seek out the dark // So we seek out the shade // It's such a mix of emotions // We call it regret
Chaotic patterns unfold // It's such an elegant mess // So I'll embrace all the pain // Its time to face all my fears
I've had enough of this game // Oh how it brings me to tears // And I can only be sure // One day I won't be alive
Stepping into the future // With the brightest of eyes // Let time stand still // For one second please just stop
Oh my // It's frightening // It's right in front of my eyes // Oh my // It's right there // It's right in front of my eyes
Wake up from the nightmare // And become the dream // That you've always been // That you've always seen
Wake up from the nightmare // Because you are the dream // I stand tall grounded here on this earth
I'm looking up at the sky // With the stars in my eyes, I'm alive // I'm looking up at the sky
I see life was my dream all along // I'm looking up at the sky // My self // My world // My people
My home // My everything

I am here to show there is hope in a dying world // And if you don't believe me you wont even see
That what you're living in is hell // Your living in hell // I am here to spread and speak the truth
I am here to heal and do what's right // Dissolving fear, spreading the light
I am here to open and free your mind // Together we travel into realms of evolution // the greatest mystery
We are the fractulated tendrils of this reality // All my will is bent on change // The universe is ours to rearrange
Follow my lead and in fact you'll see // We create our reality // I am here to show there is hope in a dying world
I can hear the calling // I wont stand by and watch the dream wither and die // This is my destiny in life
I can hear the calling // All my will is bent on change // The universe is ours to rearrange
Follow my lead and in fact you'll see // We create our reality

The scent of lies is in the air tonight // We dance in a spell of lust those eyes of yours I cannot trust
The scent of lies is in the air tonight // We dance in a spell of lust those eyes of yours I cannot trust
You act all innocent but I have seen your true face // Stop lying to yourself; you're nothing but a fucking disgrace
You're a fucking disgrace // How can you trust anyone if you cant even trust your friends
A masquerade of lies will kill us all in the end // The worst part of it all is I'm exactly the same
I'm looking around the room // I'll be the first one to blame // The scent of lies is in the air tonight
We dance in a spell of lust those eyes of yours I cannot trust // The scent of lies is in the air tonight
We dance in a spell of lust those eyes of yours I cannot trust // Take another look inside of yourself
Look at the mess you've made // Take another look inside of yourself // Your living in a masquerade
You're just a two-faced piece of shit // I'll make sure all you cowards quit // So hide yourself behind a mask
In a room of double faces // You can never hide what's in your past
Nothing changes at all I'm still exactly the same // I'm looking around the room // I'll be the first one to blame
The scent of lies is in the air tonight // We dance in a spell of lust those eyes of yours I cannot trust
The scent of lies is in the air tonight // Those eyes, those eyes
To everyone one whose held me up and everyone whose brought me down
I will never forget your faces, your voices // Wink and smile for a while behind a mask
In a room of double faces you can never hide what's in your past

I'll carve my own name into the earth // I'll carve my own name into the earth // Don't tell me how to think
Don't tell me how to live my life // I make my own decisions // And I'll pay the ultimate price
A collection of memories // How I could I ever forget // This is a journey of lessons // From my birth to my death
A path of opposites and all the choices in-between // I'm running scared through this poetic tragic movie scene
The days turn into weeks, months then turn into years // We'll stand the test of time, our hope will persevere
I roam across the land // I wish to seek an understand // The truth about life and about whom I really am
My blood is still young and karmas knocking at my door // It's time to stand up this is my life I'm fighting for
It's time to set the record straight // No more excuses, no more complaints
Leave everything behind get up and live your dream // Don't let it fade away // We are all born to be free
Fuck who you want me to be // Born to be free // A path of opposites and all the choices in between
I'm running scared through this poetic, tragic movie scene // Days turn into weeks, months then turn into years
We'll stand the test of time, Our hope will persevere // I roam across the land // I wish to seek an understand
The truth about life and about whom I really am // My blood is still young and karma's knocking at my door
It's time to stand up this is my life I'm fighting for // I roam across the land // I wish to seek an understand
The truth about life and about whom I really am // My blood is still young and karma's knocking at my door
It's time to stand up this is our lives we're fighting for // This is the life we're fighting for
This is the life we're fighting for
